

GUS WINGFIELD
TREASURER

220 STATE CAPITOL
LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS 72201

TREASURER OF STATE

October 1, 2004

The Honorable Mike Huckabee
Governor of the State of Arkansas
250 State Capitol
Little Rock, AR 72201

Dear Governor Huckabee:

In accordance with Arkansas Code Annotated §25-16-604(6), I respectfully submit the biennial report of the Treasurer of State for the biennium ending the 30th day of June, 2004. This report contains a statement of condition of the State Treasury and its operations from and after the 30th day of June, 2002, to and including the 30th day of June, 2004.

This report shall be printed and distributed in accordance with Arkansas Code Annotated §21-7-401 and §21-7-402. Copies shall be distributed to the Constitutional Officers of the State, and upon request, to members of the General Assembly. Additional copies shall be made available for distribution to the general public upon written request.

Sincerely,

Gus Wingfield
Treasurer of State

GUS WINGFIELD

ARKANSAS STATE TREASURER

Gus Wingfield was elected State Treasurer November 5, 2002. He became Auditor of State January 10, 1995, after winning his first statewide campaign defeating his democratic opponent in the primary and a republican opponent in the general election. He won his second and final term as Auditor unopposed.

Wingfield, a Democrat, served District 18 (Parts of Clark, Garland, Hot Spring, Howard, Pike and Sevier Counties) as its State Representative for 14 years. While a member of the Legislature, he served as Vice Chairman of the City, County and Local Affairs Committee and was a member of the Public Health, Welfare and Labor Committee, the Joint Performance Committee, the Revenue Committee, the Rules Committee, the Legislative Council, and he was appointed to the Arkansas Futures Commission.

Wingfield serves as the secretary of the State Board of Finance; as a trustee of Arkansas Teacher Retirement System, Arkansas Public Employees Retirement System and Arkansas Highway Employees Retirement System; and is a member of the Arkansas Development Finance Authority Board.

He worked in the private sector as the Executive Vice President of the Bank of Delight for 22 years where he also served on the Board of Directors. He is a partner in a small business, Russell L P Gas Company in Delight, that sells propane gas and appliances.

Active in community service, Wingfield was honored as Arkansas' most philanthropic person in 2001 and is a 2002 nominee for the City of Little Rock prestigious Aha! (Arts and Humanities Award) for his work promoting the MacArthur Museum of Arkansas Military History. Groups across the state have recognized Wingfield for his work promoting special interests.

Wingfield was raised at Antoine, Arkansas, and attended public school in Delight. He received a degree from Southern Technical Institute in Dallas, Texas, and attended the University of Arkansas. A veteran, Wingfield served in the U. S. Air Force in both World War II and the Korean Conflict.

Gus and his wife Alice have been married 50 years and are the parents of three children.
